

STORYTELLING & JEWISH FOLKTALES

Adult Education at NNLS
Autumn 2013

Do you want to improve your confidence, public speaking and communication skills?

Have you ever wanted to tell a story in front of an audience but never dared? Are you curious about Jewish folk tales and folklore?

If so, then this might be the course for you...

In four sessions you will get a taste of:

- ▶ Basic storytelling skills
- ▶ Basic Performance skills
- ▶ Some understanding of narrative structure
- ▶ An appreciation of traditional tales focusing especially on Jewish folktales and what sets them apart from other folktales
- ▶ Experience in telling a story and engaging an audience

The course will provide a combination of theory & practice in a fun & engaging way and will culminate in sharing a story with the group.

Tutor: Ariella Eshed

New Dates: Thursdays 7, 14, 28 November, 5 December at 8.15pm

Cost: £50 for a 4-week course

Free Taster: Sunday 20th October at 7.00pm

To Book: www.nnls-masorti.org.uk

ARIELLA ESHED

Ariella is a Storyteller, theatre director, drama and Hebrew teacher and workshop leader based in London. Over the past eight years she has led storytelling courses at City Lit college. She has worked with the National Theatre Education Department on their storytelling programme, and numerous other companies and organisations in Israel and the UK. She also runs Tik-sho-ret theatre company which specializes in Israeli and Jewish Theatre (www.tik-sho-ret.co.uk)

